GET INTO GOLF PATHWAY

Bunsay Golf in partnership with the David Brooks Academy have created a pathway for people to follow from novice to active club member or regular player.

12 WEEK CHALLENGE FOR BEGINNERS

We aim to have you ready for regular play on the course within 12 weeks of starting. This timeframe can be reduced if you have already played golf before.

ALREADY STARTED? YOU DECIDE WHAT STAGE TO JOIN IN

If you have already started playing, choose what stage you would be best suited.

STAGE 1 - Get Into Golf Coaching Sessions

- 4 week courses aimed at introducing you to golf and working through the basics required to enjoy a sociable game of golf
- These sessions will include getting out onto the course and making you familiar with basic rules and etiquette

£20 per 4 week course

STAGE 2 - Get Into Golf Follow Up Sessions

- Follow up coaching course for 4 weeks
- Introducing more advanced skills in practice sessions
- Half price green fees on Badger's Course

£40.00 for the 4 week package - GIG golfer can remain on stage 2 for a maximum of 12 weeks paying every 4 weeks

STAGE 3 - A 3 Month Trial Membership

Pay £120 for 3 months and receive full membership playing rights on both Bunsay and Badger Course's for 3 months. Golfers must of attended Get into golf lessons to qualify.

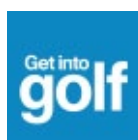

STAGE 4 - Flexible Membership Options Or Green Fee Golf

Having played for a period of time as part of the Get into golf program, join as a member with one of the flexible membership options or choose to pay green fees.
